Counsel:

We are advised by our discovery vendor that all metadata for the native files produced has been preserved. Per your request, attached is a separate report containing the metadata you requested.

We anticipate producing the second tranche of responsive, non-privileged documents next week.

And with respect to the documents requiring the Survivor's consent, Steve Mintz has been in communications with the relevant parties and will follow up.

Very truly yours,

Counsel -

Upon our initial review, it appears that the various drafts of the Guidepost report all have the same date, and there is no metadata included to allow us to identify the actual dates. Can you please look into this?

Also, do you have an update on the next stage of your production, including your request for consent?

Thanks.

Scott
